INCREASE IN EXPORTS.

What R. G. Dun & Co.'s Review Has to Say on the Trade Situation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says.

Foreign trade in September, the heavy increase in iron production and consumption and the largest payments through clearing houses ever known in October are indications which outweigh hesitation in some markets. The increase in employment of labor continues, with further accounts daily of works opening, increasing force of hands or raising wages, and at every point where actual production can be tested it appears greater than ever before.

Exports of the chief products in September amounted to $70,062,411 in value, against $52,605,403 last year and $32,052,269 in 1895, and indicate that all exports that month exceed imports of merchandise by about $55,000,000. October returns so far indicate an excess about as large.

Efforts by the Bank of England have delayed more gold exports, but, with a cotton movement rising, large shipments to this side are deemed certain and not distant. More gold, however, means less just now than more iron.

Collections are remarkably good throughout most of the country, and western and central cities are bidding in this market for paper, cutting down commercial loans of New York banks, though the aggregate placed is not lessened. With Paris exchange at the gold point, further shipments of gold to this country are thought probable. Failures for the week have been 223 in the United States, against 328 last year, and 36 in Canada, against 40 last year.

Big Increase In Exports.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The treasury statement of the merchandise and currency imports and receipts of the United States during September shows the exports of domestic merchandise to have aggregated $103,360,669, as compared with $83,746,362 for September last year. This brings the increase of such exports for the last nine months over the same period last year up to over $80,000,000.

Would Be Robber Foiled.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Another holdup occurred on the road leading to Colevile, near Port Jervis. Galen Bennett, a marble dealer, was out driving when a man sprang from the woods and seized the horse by the bridle. Bennett pulled an unloaded revolver from his pocket, at the sight of which the man fled to the woods. This is the fifth holdup that has occurred on this road within six weeks.

The Letter Fox Thieves.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Robert Russell and John F. Ogle were arrested here yesterday by Central office detectives. They are said to be the companions of Billy Morgan, alias Hamilton, and Mrs George Atwood, the wife of a convict who were captured in Boston a few days ago and are held there for a series of mail robberies. Ogle claims to be a veterinary surgeon and has an office at 1581 Broadway, this city.

Killed by a Trolley.

HARTFORD, Oct. 16.—Philo B. Hoyse of South Glastonbury died at the Hartford hospital last evening as the result of a trolley car accident. While he was crossing Main street about noon in a farmer's wagon his team was hit by a trolley car, and Mr. House was thrown heavily to the pavement. He suffered concussion of the brain and did not recover consciousness before he died.

Cuban Women Arrested.

HAVANA, Oct. 16.—The police of Guines, this province, have arrested and imprisoned Senorita Blanca Ortega, a young woman of distinguished family, and Senorita Virginia Castellanos. They are both charged with conspiring against the government.

Rhodes Had a Narrow Escape.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Daily Graphic says this morning that it hears that the recent reported illness of the Hon. Cecil Rhodes, former premier of Cape Colony, at Inyanga, was due to shock from injuries received at the hands of hostile natives beyond Salisbury. It appears that Mr. Rhodes lost his way and had a narrow escape from death.

ROUSS MAY YET SEE

Indian Doctor For the Blind Millionaire.

SAYS HE WILL CURE HIM QUICKLY.

Dr. Norman, an Anglo-Indian, Is Treating the New York Merchant and Expects to Win the $1,000,000 Reward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The clerks, the bookkeepers and porters, in fact all the employees of the big establishment of Charles Broadway Rouss, were in a state of great excitement yesterday when a mysterious looking individual left the store, and, jumping into a carriage, was driven rapidly up town—that is, as rapidly as the puzzle of cable cars and trucks would permit.

The mysterious stranger was Dr. Guelph Norman, a physician from far away India, who has traveled more than half way around the earth to try to restore sight to the blind eyes of the multimillionaire merchant prince.

The doctor remained with the multimillionaire hardly half an hour. The actual treatment consumed but 15 minutes.

Mr. Rouss reclined in a big easy chair in his private office, and the long, weird looking doctor from India commenced operations by feeling his pulse. Then he looked upward and muttered what sounded like a prayer.

The doctor gazed earnestly into his patient's eyes and proceeded to rub a colorless liquid over the lids and temples with mysterious motions. He stroked the back of the head. Each motion was timed.

When the doctor's treatment was over, Mr. Rouss could see the doctor's hand well enough to tell what it was when held 12 inches from his eyes. At 14 inches the millionaire could only tell that there was some sort of an object before him.

Dr. Norman says he will restore sight to the eyes of the multimillionaire within four weeks, and, though he has been at work for several days, the fact was not generally known. In fact, Mr. Rouss did not care to have the matter become public property, but, as the oriental doctor called each morning at the big Broadway store, it was not long before the employees suspected and then dug out the facts.

Now they are all attention, and each morning, after the doctor goes away, they are unhappy until the official report is passed around from one to another telling everybody just how much good has been done.

The fact that Charles Broadway Rouss offers a million of dollars or more to be able to see as other folks do reached Dr. Norman in his home in India. He is an Englishman, but has lived in India for many years.

He is not an M. D. according to western medical ideas, but he is skilled in arts of optical cures which are almost as old as civilization, and the one now employed on Mr. Rouss is said to date back as far as the Vedas, the book of sacred and heroic writings, embracing the ancient philosophy of the Aryans.

After curing Mr. Rouss Dr. Norman will go to work on the blind eyes of substitute James Martin.

After the operation had been performed Dr. Norman explained his work as the Ayurvedic or Iddhividhanana treatment, but would not go into details. He said he could have cured the millionaire just as well from his home in India, but denied that there was any faith used in the treatment.

He told of curing a woman in India, and said that it was she who heard of Mr. Rouss' offer of $1,000,000 for the return of his sight and suggested that he should come to America, and if successful the fee would be sufficient for both cures.

Mr. Rouss says he has faith in the treatment, but will not give up one cent until sight is entirely restored.

An official of the Medical society said last night that Robert C. Taylor, the attorney of the society, would be asked to at once look into Dr. Norman's pretensions and legal status and see if he could not be brought to book for his extraordinary actions. The most eminent oculists in the world have pronounced Mr. Rouss incurably blind, and now comes a man, from no one knows where, who declares he will effect a perfect and permanent cure and within an incredibly brief period.

Excitement Over the Christening.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—So great is the interest excited by the preparations for the christening of the son of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, born Sept. 18 last, and so many have expressed the desire to be present, that the subdean of the Chapel Royal is reluctantly compelled to confine admission strictly to ticket holders. It will therefore, be virtually a private function.

Boy Charged With Murder.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 16.—Thirteen-year old Johnnie Matthews was arrested today charged with murdering the 7-year old son of Captain L. L. Bridges, a well known attorney, formerly of Sedalia, Mo. The boys quarreled, and the younger one was afterward found dead lying in front of his father's house with a bullet wound in his head. The bullet came from across the street, apparently from the Matthews house, where a recently fired rifle was found.

Still Considering Hammond's Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—It was announced this afternoon that the war department would not be able to reach a conclusion yet as to the case of Private Hammond, who is said to have been ill treated by Captain Lovering at Fort Sheridan, and it is understood that consultations between Secretary Alger and General Miles are still in progress on this subject.

DOME CRUSHED THEM

Collapse of a Theater Ceiling Brings Death and Havoc.

FIVE KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

The Accident Occurred In an Opera House In Cincinnati While a Play Was In Progress, and a Terrible Panic Followed.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—The dome of Robinson's Opera House fell into the orchestra at 5:20 o'clock last night. Five persons were killed and 50 or 60 injured.

The first intimation that there was anything wrong with the roof was early in the evening. There was a sharp crack, and a piece of the ceiling one foot long and three inches wide fell into the orchestra from the east side of the roof. Many in the audience started to their feet, but there was no further intimation of trouble.

At the end of the second act, while the stage hands were setting the scenes for the third, little Alice Opie, a child performer, was in front of the curtain, singing and dancing. Suddenly the huge dome of the theater fell with a crash on to the orchestra chairs, a distance of 150 feet.

Then followed a panic. Women screamed and men groaned. Alice Opie ran behind the scenes and all the lights in the theater were extinguished by the breaking of the main electric wire. Ten patrol wagons and as many fire engines and ladder companies were around the theater in five minutes, and a howling mob was rushing about interfering with the work of rescue.

Admiral Foster, the treasurer, seized the cashbox and rushed to a place of safety. Louis Dunkman, assistant treasurer, who had just started from the gallery with the receipts of that department, was caught in the crowd and carried into an alley south of Ninth street before he could escape.

A dozen persons with broken arms and bloody faces and torn clothes were carried into Bachrach's saloon, opposite the hospital. Several doctors who were in the crowd volunteered their services and dressed the wounds. The injured ones were afterward taken to the City hospital, and some of them walked to their homes.

Captain Conway and his salvage corps, who were first on the scene, seized half a dozen bodies and, not stopping to see whether they were dead or alive, galloped off with them to the hospital. As fast as the patrol wagons arrived they were filled with limp bodies and rushed to the hospital. Several actors rendered heroic assistance and risked their lives under the hanging debris to pull out the unfortunates.

While the excitement was at its height and men were cursing and women screaming in their frantic endeavors to escape there came another crash. It was the entire ceiling tearing away from the rafters and tumbling down upon the mass of struggling humanity. It sounded like a terrible whirlwind.

The noise was heard for a block, and hundreds rushed to the front of the theater, but were met and driven back across the street by the streams of people rushing from the inside. Hundreds were crushed under foot.

A score were carried back into the dressing rooms on the stage. An arbitrary call was sent in for every patrol wagon in the city, and a general fire alarm was sounded.

A man named Goldberg was carried into the drug store of Al Boehmer, at Eighth street and Central avenue. He had a fractured skull and was taken to the City hospital.

A mob of excited persons surrounded the hospital, crying for their friends. Archbishop Elder and Father Mackey arrived at the hospital just before 10 o'clock and ministered to the wounded and dying.

It Was Not Yellow Fever.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—When the Cromwell liner Louisiana, from New Orleans, arrived at quarantine on the 11th, Captain Kemble reported to the health officer that Daniel O'Connor, one of the ship's crew, had been suffering from general debility for three days. As a precautionary measure the patient was removed to the Swinburne Island hospital for observation, where he died. An autopsy, held yesterday, showed that death was caused from chronic nephritis.

Will Remove Their Grievances.

ROME, Oct. 16.—The minister of finance has issued a circular to tax collectors intended to remove the grievances growing out of the objectionable system of assessing the income tax, which occasioned the recent riots.

Congressman Pitney Very Ill.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Oct. 16.—Congressman Mahlon Pitney is in a critical condition at his home on Colles avenue, here. He is suffering from typhoid fever, and last evening it was said his condition was serious.

Crespo's Son Dead.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—United States Consul Loomis, at Caracas, Venezuela, has cabled the state department confirmation of a report of the death of the son of President Crespo in Paris.

Madrid Seems Frightened.

MADRID, Oct. 16.—The government has issued orders for the enforcement of a strict quarantine against all vessels hailing from Galveston as a precaution against yellow fever.

The Yantic Starts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The corvette Yantic has sailed from Boston for Montreal, where she will be turned over to representatives of the Michigan naval militia.

A DARING ABDUCTION.

Three Negroes Seize a White Girl In New York State.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Yesterday Katie Clum, the pretty 17-year-old daughter of Henry Clum, a well to do farmer of Prattsville, Greene county, was abducted from her home by three negroes, Henry, Frank and Mary Dorr.

Miss Clum's parents were absent from home, leaving at the farmhouse Miss Clum, a younger brother and sister and C. C. Moore. Moore was awakened by a stifled scream which seemed to come from Miss Clum's room. He burst open her door and in the dim light saw a negro, with the young woman in his arms, climb out of the rear window and go down a ladder that had been placed at the side of the house. When he reached the ground, he was joined by two companions, and they carried the limp form of the girl, who had fainted or been drugged, toward a clump of woods some distance away.

Moore hastily dressed and ran from the house in pursuit of the abductors, but did not find any trace of them. Then he returned home, summoned the neighboring farmers, and a search was instituted for the missing girl, but without avail.

DEFIANT CONTRACTORS.

May Force California's Governor to Call Out Troops.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—There will be a lively fight on the North Beach water front if Warren & Malloy, contractors for the Fair estate, adhere to their resolution to oppose the state harbor commission in the removal of obstructions that now block the entrance to the Fillmore street wharf. The contractors have driven piles and thrown in rock on water lots which, they contend, are not under state jurisdiction, and in this work they have obstructed the channel, 23 feet deep, to the wharf.

When the agent of the harbor commission tried to remove the piles the contractors ran scows into his tug and nearly sank her. They have now 100 armed men camping on the piles, who are instructed to shoot any one who interferes with them. Governor Budd says he will call out the militia if necessary, and he has given the contractors but a short time to remove the obstructions. If they refuse, he proposes to move immediately upon the works.

EX-JUDGE VINCENT SPEAKS.

Says the Prosecution Has Only Thrown Mud at Luetgert.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The intensely hot weather yesterday had but little effect upon the attendance at the Luetgert trial. The courtroom was packed, and hundreds of persons were unable to gain admittance.

Attorney Vincent, chief counsel for the defense, continued his address to the jury. His arguments were principally directed toward the "reasonable doubt" as to the death of Mrs. Luetgert. He vigorously attacked the police officials for their alleged browbeating of witnesses, particularly in the case of Mary Siemmering, whom, he declared, the defendant had treated more like a daughter than an employee.

The witnesses for the prosecution were held up to scorn, and ex-Judge Vincent declared that the prosecution had done nothing but throw mud at his client, while the defense had been engaged in scraping it off.

Mrs. Blight Was a Suicide.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 16.—It became known that Mrs. Blight, wife of Atherton Blight, the well known Newport summer resident, took her own life. A rumor to this effect became current soon after she died on Tuesday morning last, but the attending physicians and those who had charge of the remains were enjoined to secrecy, and it was not till yesterday, when the fact became a public record at the board of health office, that the truth came out. Mrs. Blight shot herself while alone in her room. For many months she had been an invalid. She was hopelessly ill of consumption. Many times the end appeared near, but it did not come, and Mrs. Blight became melancholy.

Prisoners Break Away.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 16.—During the State Firemen's convention here last week the police arrested Henry Evans of Scranton, David Sullivan of Pittsburg and Lawrence Sullivan of Philadelphia, charged with being pickpockets. They were committed to jail. Yesterday they were ordered before the court for a habeas corpus hearing. Jail Warden Boland had the three men in charge and was escorting them from the jail to the courthouse when all three made a dash for liberty and escaped. Boland is a heavy man and could not overtake the prisoners. It is believed that the men are notorious crooks.

Quartet of Bold Burglars In Limbo.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Four of the most successful and daring burglars in the United States have been arrested here and $25,000 worth of stolen property awaits identification. The men are "Shoney Joe" Rubenstein, the leader; Harry Rogers, James Flaherty and James Williams. Letters they carried showed they had been taking a flying trip from coast to coast and had agreed to meet in New York city Oct. 1 and then go to St. Louis. Evidence was found on them indicating that they had committed robberies in a score of cities besides New York.

Think They Have Nichols' Slayers.

CROSWELL, Mich., Oct. 16.—Two men are under arrest here awaiting identification. The officers say they answer the description of Charles A. Bonai and David Weeks, who are charged with being concerned in the murder of George Marcus Nichols near Bridgeport, Conn. A reward of $4,500 was offered for the murderers.

STARTLING CHARGE.

Eli Shaw Is Arrested For His Mother's Murder.

GRANDMOTHER WAS A VICTIM ALSO.

Police Apprehend Him at His Cousin's House Entertaining a Sweetheart Whom He Was to Have Married Today.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 16.—Eli Shaw was taken into custody by the police officials yesterday and formally charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Shaw, and grandmother, Mrs. Emma Zane, which occurred in this city Tuesday morning. The arrest was based on newly discovered evidence, including the finding of a 32 caliber revolver, of which two chambers had been fired, at the bottom of a chimney. The pistol was thrown into the chimney through a stove hole in the room in the third story which had been occupied by Shaw.

The police also discovered upon close examination of the floor of Shaw's room several blood prints.

Shaw was found at the home of a cousin entertaining his sweetheart, whom he was to have married today. He was not told that he was suspected of the murders until he arrived at the city jail. Chief of Police Dodd then charged him with the crime and showed him the revolver. Shaw protested his innocence, and in answer to the question as to the ownership of the revolver said it belonged to him. He was then told of the blood spots on the floor of his room. He grew pale and reeled against the side of his cell, talking incoherently.

Prosecutor Jenkins rigidly cross-examined Shaw for three hours and a half. When he left Shaw's cell, the prosecutor said that he felt sure he had the right man. The motive for the crime, he said, was doubtless a desire on the part of Shaw to inherit the property belonging to his grandmother and mother in order to be married. His salary was small, and he had made arrangements to rent an expensive house.

The prosecutor stated that he had a large amount of evidence in his possession which has not yet been made public, which warrants him in believing that the revolver had been thrown in the chimney by Shaw.

It is now believed that the murders were committed two or three hours before Shaw gave the alarm.

Physicians who examined the women's bodies soon after Shaw gave the alarm have stated that the congealing of the blood on the women clearly demonstrated this fact.

Since the murders Shaw has been at the home of relatives, and has persistently stated that the crime was committed by burglars. He said he was awakened early in the morning of the murders by a noise down stairs and went to the second floor to investigate. His mother followed him and pushed ahead to see what was the matter. He said he heard a shot and saw his mother fall. In the back room, he said, he saw the forms of two men. He then gave the alarm, and when the police arrived the body of his grandmother was found sitting in a chair in the front room. Shaw at the time of the murders was recovering from an attack of typhoid fever and has since been under the care of a physician.

Nurse Dies From Morphine.

READING, Pa., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Martha Matta, aged 53 years, a widow and a professional nurse, died in St. Joseph's hospital from the effects of morphine, taken, it is believed, with suicidal intent. Mrs. Matta a few days ago quarreled with the woman with whom she lived and was arrested on a charge of assault. She was released on bail and, keenly feeling that she was disgraced by arrest, had since refused to eat or drink. She took morphine, she said, to induce sleep and, becoming unconscious, was removed to the hospital, where she died. She graduated as a trained nurse from Bellevue hospital, New York, and is survived by a sister living in that city.

Horrifying Execution.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Vienna correspondent of The Daily Mail, describing the execution there of Dolezal, the murderer of two old women, says: "It was a horrifying spectacle. The murderer displayed the most pitiable nervous agony. Instead of being dropped, as is customary in England, he was hoisted by the neck several feet and then drawn down by cords attached to his arms and legs. The struggles of the miserable wretch lasted three minutes."

In Jail For Love.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Max Pantzer, once a sublieutenant in the German army, is under arrest here for eloping with the wife of a merchant of Berlin named Rudolph Schmidt. The husband followed her here and began suit for $50,000 damages against Pantzer. Then he said Pantzer intended leaving the city and had him jailed.

The Yellow Fever Situation.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 16.—There have been 44 new cases of fever reported and three deaths. Eight cases of yellow fever are reported from Jackson, seven being colored persons. Six suspicious cases are said to be under examination at Cayuga. The last of Dr. Guiteras' patients in Galveston was discharged yesterday.

Blew His Head Off.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 16.—Howard C. Wright shot and killed himself at Hope Valley by blowing part of his head off with a gun. He was 47 years old.

Dean Vaughan Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Very Rev. Charles John Vaughan, M. A., D. D., dean of Llandaff since 1879, died at Llandaff last night.

—Chrissie, the eight year old daughter of Peter Wegmann of near Jeffersonville, died Oct. 7th of diphtheria. She is the fourth child in the family to die of the disease in about a week. The only surviving child two years old is not yet out of danger.

Dig down to the cause of your sickness if you want to get well and stay well. Most likely it's indigestion. The irritating poisons of fermenting, putrid food left in the stomach by indigestion cause headache, neuralgia, nervousness, dizziness, stomach-ache, irritability and all the other well known symptoms of indigestion.

They also cause many pains and disorders which are often laid to other causes, and hence not easily cured. But as soon as the poisons are removed all these symptoms and disorders disappear, because there is nothing left to cause them. Nothing succeeds in this like Shaker Digestive Cordial, because it prevents the undigested food from fermenting in the stomach and helps the stomach to digest its food.

The Morey-Shea Company to Play at Popular Prices.

Monday will usher in a week of repertoire at popular prices at the Casino. The Morey-Shea combination is exceptionally strong, carrying twenty-five people, including band and orchestra led by the well known Gatty Bros., champion drum majors. Ed. S. Morey in specialties, Little Nellie DeVere the famous child dancer changing her act each day, and Lou Timber musical specialist. The orchestra will render descriptive music between the acts.

The opening bill will be The Fire Saver, a strong comedy drama. The bill will be changed each day.

EVER CROWDED THE NEW STORE PROGRESSES.

When we first started here it was predicted that we would do no business in this out of the way location. But now the store is all too small to hold its trade—of all things room is what we are most in need of. Department after department having outgrown the space assigned to it, clamors for more room, so that now TOMPKINS NEW STORE this busy bee hive of activity, will in a few days also occupy the store adjoining, No. 6 East Main street. The fall season is at our threshold, and well we can say we are ready for it. Every counter full to the brim. Goods for the thousand—All priced with the object in view to turn over our stock quick.

INTERESTING NEWS FOR CLOTHING BUYERS.

Such an opportunity never has been offered to the people of Orange County and vicinity. On account of retiring from the retail clothing business on or about APRIL 1st, 1897, I offer my immense stock of

Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's Clothing,

At prices never so low or heard of in the Clothing Trade. They are made of the best materials, finest fabrics and best workmanship.

Having 30 Years' Experience in the Clothing Market enables me to offer my stock at prices never before heard of. Remember this is no shelf worn stock, but stock which has been selected with care and is Up-to-Date.

Never since the first suiting was created from the primitive spinning wheel was clothing sold so cheap. Never before did such exquisitely made clothes stoop to such diminutive prices.

Blot Out All Thoughts of Hard Times---Look at These Prices!

Men's Suits from $2.75 up. Men's Overcoats from $4 up.
500 Children's Suits, worth $5 and $4, will be sold for $1.25.
300 pairs Men's Pants, worth $4 and $3, will be sold for $1.50.
100 dozen Wool Socks, worth 20c, will be sold for 10c.
50 dozen Cotton Socks, worth 10c, will be sold for 4c.

WHAT IS YOUR TRADE?

Each Trade or Occupation Has Its Special Disease.

It is well known among medical men that certain diseases are more readily developed in certain occupations than in others. That each occupation has its attendant physical weakness. Engineers, railroad men and similar occupations suffer mostly from kidney troubles and men who are often exposed to the weather suffer from rheumatism while clerks and professional men, in fact the army of people whose business keeps them indoors, are oftentimes great sufferers from piles and constipation. In this connection the following letter is of interest to people whose occupation will not allow sufficient outdoor exercise.

A. F. [illegible], notary public and [illegible] at [illegible], W. Va., writes as follows:

I had been a severe sufferer from piles for years and had tried many remedies with but little benefit, when about three years ago I saw the Pyramid Pile Cure advertised and sent for it.

I was badly afflicted when I got them, but after only two applications the piles disappeared and from that day to this I have never had a symptom of the disease.

I feel that I cannot recommend the too highly to sufferers from piles.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is free from cocaine, opium or any mineral poison, absolutely safe, pleasant and painless; sold by druggists at 50 cents per package. If there is any constipation the Pyramid Pills should be used with the pile cure. The pills are 25 cents per package.

Any druggist will tell you that the Pyramid is the best known and most successful and popular pile cure ever placed on the market and its reputation as a safe and radical cure has only resulted from the personal recommendation of people who have been cured of this distressing ailment.

Send to Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich., for valuable little book on cause and cure of piles.

"Painless and Delightful Catarrh Remedy."

is the good word which John MacInnes, Wathaback Bridge, N. S., has to say of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, after having suffered from catarrhal deafness for years. In ten minutes from the first application he had relief, and after using but one bottle his hearing was restored to all natural acuteness. Not an excuse for despairing of a cure with such a remedy within reach of you.

Sold by James T. King and McMonagle & Rogers.

For pin worms, eczema, hives, in fact, any of the various torturing, itchy diseases of the skin, Doan's Ointment is an instant and positive remedy. Get it from your dealer.

Some Local Notes—Personal Mention—The Law of Love—A Novel Wager.

From a Special Correspondent

—The ladies of St. James' Guild met to sew, on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. George Grier.

—Miss May Lewis, of Troy, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Henry C. Duryea.

—Miss Martha Voorhees has returned from her summer vacation and has resumed her classes in drawing and painting.

—Rev. Phineas Duryea and sister have returned from the White Mountains, where they have spending a month's vacation.

—There was a certain philosophy in the remark made by the small boy, to the effect that he did not mind his father's whippings so very much because it felt so good when he stopped. We all know what he meant. It is the contrasts in life that make us appreciate the good things of it. The sorrows heighten the joys: a few days of pain will make us appreciate our usual good health all the more: the sunshine is never so bright and welcome as after a time of clouds and rain. As in a well painted picture, the shadows but serve to emphasize and bring into prominence the high lights. This was brought to the writer's notice rather forcibly, a short time ago, by two ordinary incidents in every day life. She had occasion one evening to pass through a certain part of her own village and, while walking in front of one of the houses, was startled by a flood of profanity poured forth in a voice unmistakably that of a woman, who was evidently intoxicated. A short time afterward, chance led her again in the same direction one morning, and, only a little way from the house to which her attention had been called before so unpleasantly, was a hammock slung between two trees. In the hammock were seated two little girls, possibly six and eight years old, the elder of whom was teaching the younger, word by word, the text, "He who seeks me early shall find me." Here, only a few yards apart, was a contrast as sharp as that between Heaven and Hell. On the one hand, darkness and that saddest and most pitiful of all sad and pitiful things—debased and degraded womanhood—and on the other sunshine and the innocence of childhood.

—Probably most of us remember the nursery rhyme that relates the courtship and marriage of the monkey and the baboon's sister, and the concluding lines concerning their brief but ardent wooing:

"He kissed so hard he raised a blister.
She set up a yell."

Undoubtedly a baboon's sister expresses her feelings in a more artless and natural manner than an ordinary sister, and probably that is the reason we hear of no outcry having been made by the German girl who, recently, consented to allow her lover to lower the record by attempting to kiss her ten thousand times in ten hours. His lips were paralyzed before the third hour, but we hear nothing as to her fate. It must have been mortifying in the extreme to her to read in the papers that her betrothed was paralyzed under such circumstances; and it was then that she retired from the scene and followed the example of the baboon's female relative. The Pochuck Railroad.

From the Sussex Independent

A big train load of ties and steel went over the Lehigh and New England Railroad on Monday, for the Pochuck Railroad. They commenced laying track Tuesday morning. The grading is nearly all done to the quarries. It is probable now that the railroad will be continued to Glenwood. A meeting of citizens was held Wednesday evening, addressed by Mr. Turner, president of the road.

FOR ALDERMEN.

Never since Middletown became a city have better candidates for Aldermen been before the people than those nominated, this fall, by the Democrats of the several wards.

In the First Ward, the candidate is George Waldorf, a successful and far-seeing business man, who will bring to the discharge of official duties the same qualities that have won for him success in his own affairs. He has ample time to devote to the city's business and will, if elected, prove one of the most faithful and efficient Aldermen that ever sat in the Common Council.

George W. O'Neal, the candidate in the Second Ward, holds a responsible position with the O. and W., and by the intelligence and fidelity with which he has discharged his duties has merited and won the confidence of his employers. He is a good citizen in every sense of the word and has always taken a deep interest in the city's welfare and prosperity. He will make a faithful and competent member of the Common Council and, if elected, can always be depended on to do his full duty to the people of his ward and of the whole city.

John H. Gavin, the candidate in the Third Ward, is a type of the sturdy manhood that is the strength of a state or city. No selfish interest or motive lies back of his candidacy. He has often been urged by his party friends to be a candidate for office, but has always refused until this year, when he felt that his duty as a citizen required that he should allow the use of his name. Mr. Gavin is held in high esteem by all, and there is not a citizen of the ward who does not feel certain that the city's interests will be safe in his hands and that he will do all that is in his power to give the people the best possible government.

Zopher K. Greene, the candidate in the Fourth Ward, served a term in the council several years ago, and made a record as an honest, capable, independent and efficient representative that will win for him many votes this fall. The people of his ward know his worth and will give him a most flattering vote on election day.

All the candidates stand squarely on the platform adopted at the Democratic City Convention, and are pledged to use their best efforts to give the city a more economical administration, to the end that taxes may be reduced and property owners relieved of the heavy burdens by which they have been oppressed under Republican rule.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

Henry Hull Received a Fractured Skull When Thrown From a Wagon.

Henry Hull, who lived in the [illegible] tenement house near Michigan [illegible], died Friday of injuries received by being thrown from a wagon while driving Wednesday night, from Scotchtown to Crystal Run. The horse ran away, causing the accident in which he received a fractured skull. Dr. Santee intended to bring him to Thrall Hospital, but he died before the ambulance reached there. He is survived by his wife.

Coroner Decker, who was notified of Hull's death, made an investigation, and after learning the particulars of the accident did not deem an inquest necessary and granted a burial permit.

Thomas Deyo, the Michigan blacksmith, with whom Hull was riding when the accident occurred, and who sustained a bad injury to his side, is reported to be in a very critical condition, this afternoon.

A FAMILY FEUD.

Slight Disturbance on Cortland Street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bryan, a seventy-year-old woman, living with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Whipple, at No. 23 Cortland street, had an argument of some kind with her daughter, this morning, and Policemen Freer and Tyrell were summoned. The story seemed to favor the grandmother and Capt. Veber, who afterward investigated the matter, made no arrests and cautioned other occupants of the house to let Mrs. Bryan alone.

THE HOT WAVE IN THE WEST

All October Heat Records Broken in Chicago and Other Cities.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 16.—One death and two prostrations were yesterday's heat record. It was the hottest October day in the history of the Weather Bureau. The mercury touched 87° in the Auditorium tower and on the street it seemed like a 100° in the shade. Toward evening a reaction occurred and midnight found the thermometer marking 78°.

Springfield had a temperature of 86° to 88° as did Dubuque, Ia., breaking all previous records.

AT THE BREWERY.

Work is Progressing Rapidly and the Building Will Soon Be Completed.

The masons and carpenters at work at the new brewery, are pushing the work on the brewery and office rapidly. The latter is nearly completed, and Mr. Reinecke, the general manager, has already furnished one room for his own private office.

On the second floor is the directors' room, a large and commodious room, which will be popular when the brewery gets in operation.

The two 100-horse power Hogan boilers will be erected next week. Mr. Reinecke, on Friday, purchased a Donnigan & Swift 40-horse power engine of the 1897 pattern.

Carter & McCoy are painting the office and brewery.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Business Transacted at the Annual Meeting—Officers Elected—Reports and Recommendations.

Secretary Morrison in the report which he read at the annual meeting of the Agricultural Society in this city, Friday, reviewed at length the recent exhibition, pointing out its merits and its shortcomings, and summarized this branch of his report by saying:

Although the fair, taken as a whole, was much smaller than the fairs of recent years, it was in nearly all departments highly creditable to the society, and considering the circumstances under which it was held may be regarded as a very successful exhibition. It was so satisfactory to exhibitors and visitors that it is safe to predict, with as favorable weather next year, the twenty-eighth fair will be one of the largest and best, if not the very largest and best ever held in the county.

The whole number of entries in all classes was 3,268, 2,973 less than last year, and 56 more than in 1884.

The total premiums awarded this year exclusive of speed prizes, were 51 diplomas, 28 medals and $2,830. Last year there were 95 diplomas, 90 medals and $4,792.

Mr. Morrison made the following recommendations:

1. That the uniform price of admission be twenty-five cents and no discrimination be made for age or sex except on Children's Day.

2. That expert judges be employed in all classes where it is practicable to secure them.

3. That prize ribbons and cards be affixed to animals and articles awarded premiums by the judges at the time the awards are made, and not by the superintendents afterwards.

4. That a list of the premiums awarded and of the judges be printed and a copy sent to every exhibitor.

5. That an inventory of the movable property of the society be made as soon after the fair as practicable and be presented at the annual meeting.

Mr. Morrison suggested that the indebtedness of $4,500 incurred in the purchase of grounds ought to receive consideration. Necessary improvements to the grounds and buildings would absorb any surplus that might result from exhibitions for several years. The only way that occurred to him for providing for the payment of the debt was the issuing of life membership certificates which had been done by some agricultural societies to their very great advantage.

Treasurer Waring's report cannot at present be given in itemized form, as a full settlement of the society's expenditures has not yet been made. While the report as given at the meeting showed a deficiency of $4,965 62, the society will receive $3,000 from the State fund, and at a meeting of the Board of Managers, held at the close of the annual meeting, the president, secretary and treasurer were authorized to adopt such measures as they deem necessary to provide for the balance.

Mr. Denniston stated that in 1878 he became president on the death of President Comfort. It had been his pleasure to hold the office ever since. He had done his best as such officer, and had formed many pleasant acquaintances, etc. He has desired a permanent location for the fair for several years and believed Middletown was the best site, being centrally located. He likes the ground here and believes they are the prettiest fair grounds in the country. Now that the fair is permanently located he felt satisfied and desired to resign. His business cares will not permit of further acceptance of the office.

Mr. Holbert, of near Goshen, named J. E. Wells for president.

E. A. Brown said he voiced the sentiment of Middletown people in urging Mr. Denniston to remain. He moved that the secretary cast a ballot for him. This met with great applause. H. M. Howell seconded the motion.

Mr. Denniston again positively declined.

Mr. Brown carried the viva voce [illegible] to put the motion. The ayes were emphatic [illegible]

Mr. Denniston accepted for another year, under protest, but agreed to do the best he [illegible] for the society.

Mr. Wells moved that the secretary cast a ballot [illegible] as president. [illegible] done.

Mr. Requa suggested [illegible] Middletown [illegible] Mr. Se[illegible] [illegible] H. Hallock [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. Requa moved that the secretary cast a ballot for H. M. Waring, for treasurer. Mr. Waring positively declined a re-election, but he was elected just the same.

Mr. Requa moved that the secretary cast a ballot for all four directors to succeed themselves. Leander Clark declined renomination, and H. M. Howell named O. W. Mapes in his stead. Mr. Hallock named John W. Sanford, of Warwick, and E. A. Brown named W. H. Clark, of Minisink, and Mr. Hallock was renominated. The secretary cast a ballot for W. H. Hallock, Geo. A. Swayze, O. W. Mapes and W. H. Clark.

Mr. Waring positively withdrew as treasurer and named C. Macardell, who was elected.

Mr. Morrison again resigned and named Wm. Eager as secretary. This caused Mr. Denniston to say that he, too, desired to resign. Mr. Goodale spoke, saying that D. A. Morrison must not resign. Mr. Morrison agreed to think the matter over and if he finally concludes to resign he will do so to the directors.

The Board of Managers was authorized to borrow the necessary money to meet current expenses.

The meeting then adjourned and the premium card holders made a rush upon Treasurer Waring, who gave them orders on Assistant Secretary Nickinson, who paid them.

LUCKY HUNTERS

Nearly all Who Went Out After Squirrels and Rabbits Had Good Luck.

Friday, when the small game season opened, was a perfect day for the hunters. The frost was heavy, dampening the leaves, the air was invigorating, and the weather just right. Nearly all of those who went out shot game and it is believed that at least 300 grey squirrels were shot.

Louis Wengenroth went to the mountains in the vicinity of Wurtsboro, and he returned at night with six rabbits, two woodcock and two grey squirrels.

Harry M. Hayes, F. M. Madden and Officer Sharpe returned from the Barnes woods with seven squirrels and eight rabbits. Recorder Barnes, who was in the above party, remained there, to-day, and he was joined at daybreak by Edward D. Tompkins and A. E. Nickinson. The party will breakfast at "Jerry's" and hunt the 200 acres of woods hard for squirrels.

Will Dusenberry and Joseph King had good sport in the woods at Thompson Ridge and near Ballville.

A pair of hunters who spent the day at Stevensville Lake, returned to New York, Friday night, with ten rabbits, two ducks and a long string of birds.

Wesley Decker shot seventeen squirrels and a rabbit and Capt. Gould six squirrels near Stony Ford. City Attorney Bradner shot fourteen, and one of them a black squirrel, near Crystal Run. He presented the black squirrel to Jacob Gunther who will have it mounted. John E. Corwin shot six.

Constable Faulkner, "Tom" Cropsey and David Lemon went out for birds and returned empty-handed.

F. T. Mapes, of Howells, shot nine squirrels in his vicinity.

The hunters say that squirrels have not been so plentiful in years as this fall. Many were seen which escaped the shot sent after them.

Benjamin Hunt went to Westtown and shot four rabbits and eleven squirrels.

A man from Sullivan appeared at Totten's, Friday night, with a dozen partridges and six woodcock.

Oscar Terwilliger and Conductor Smith got several squirrels near Pine Bush.

Richard Slater got eleven squirrels and a partridge, near Ballville.

Last Day of Registration.

This is the last day for registration. The man whose name is not on the registry list by 9 o'clock this evening will not have the right to vote at the coming election. Only those who go to the polls in person will be registered, and there is no way by which a man can get the right to vote, if he fails to attend personally to the registration. Register, therefore, without a moment's delay. Take no chances of losing your vote. REGISTER TO-NIGHT, WITHOUT FAIL!

WEDDED IN THE TOMBS.

Frederick Hansee's Marriage to Jennie Bonney

Frederick Hansee, a former O. and W. newsboy, who was arrested in New York, Wednesday, for betraying Jennie Bonney under promise of marriage, was married to her in the Tombs, Friday morning.

Mrs. Hansee says that she met her husband at Liberty two years ago and accompanied him to New York, where, according to her lawyer's statement, he not only neglected to marry her but failed to return $75 of her money that she had entrusted to him.

Mrs. Hansee got employment and kept her eyes out for Hansee and finally met him. She appeared to be very forgiving and they had several walks together, and finally she handed him to a policeman's clutches.

Miss Bonney was for a time a resident of this city, having been employed at the Russell House, and is well remembered by many Middletowners.

STRICKEN IN HIS CAB.

An Erie Engineer Paralyzed While on Duty.

Con Romaine, of Port Jervis, engineer on an Erie fast freight, was stricken with paralysis while his train was running at high speed near Monroe, Friday night. His condition was noticed by a brakeman who was in the cab who stopped the train, and Mr. Romaine was taken from his engine at Suffern and placed on train 3 and taken home.

Had not the stricken engineer's condition been discovered when it was, a serious accident might have occurred.

Trading Stamps Growing in Popular Favor.

The advertisement of the Middletown Trading Stamp Company, published in this issue, will attract general attention. Of the reliability and responsibility of the company there can be no question, and the popularity of their system is already attested by the large number of stamps which have been given out by merchants who are patrons of the stamp company. The system is briefly but clearly outlined in the company's advertisement. Practically the articles to be obtained at their store are premiums given for cash purchases.

GEO. B. ADAMS & CO.

A $65,000 STOCK OF MERCHANDISE.

Autumn opening and sale of new Silks, Dress Goods, Cloaks, Capes, Jackets, Underwear, Blankets, Comfortables, Carpets, Rugs, etc., on Monday, Oct. 18th,

AT 9 O'CLOCK A. M.

We will open the season with one of the most complete stocks of new Dry Goods, Cloaks, Carpets, etc., ever shown in this city. This sale will continue through the season; all prices quoted will remain the same as long as the goods last. We advise an early call as a first pick here is worth something. Goods are advancing all the time, our goods were all contracted for before the advance in cloth and labor, we did not make any mistake this season in buying largely. Mr. Adams devotes all of his time buying for our four large stores, and he is always on the alert for manufacturers' ends, samples or any bargain in Dry Goods etc., etc., if the qualities are right. We haven't any trade for trash, low priced cheap stuff at any price. You can buy good goods nearly as cheap as you can buy the so-called sale goods.

Cloaks, Suits and Separate Skirts.

We have made special efforts to excel in all that comes under this head, and we believe that our collection of Coats, Capes, Jackets and Skirts cannot be surpassed in this county.

THE HOME COMING.

The day's work done, my homeward way
Beneath the elm trees' shade
I wound; near the gate my boy
Watched for me while he played.

Oh, he was fair to see!
A winsome boy was he,
With eyes of heavenly blue;
A soul no stain that knew.

And soon as he afar the street
My coming did espy,
Forth would he speed on eager feet,
Bounding with joyous cry,

To grasp my hands and give his kiss,
And tell what he had done
Or seen, the while through that or this
His sportive hours had run.

Oh, his was guileless art
The way from heart to heart!
Thoughtful amid his glee,
A loving child was he.

Now many a year that fair young head
Has rested 'neath the sod,
And I the homeward way still tread
To where he lives in God—

An unknown way; but when I near,
At last the shadowy gate,
Of lacking welcome I've no fear;
For me my child's await,

Mature in heavenly grace and lore,
To greet me as my guide,
And ope for me my mansion's door,
And aye with me abide.

And so, the while a tear
Drops on the sod so dear,
Still home with cheer I fare;
My child awaits me there.
—Christian World.

Fragments of an Evening.

THIS is simply a fragment torn out of an evening. The reader will please uprear before his vision a bedroom, a gas jet burning at what might be called the middle register of illumination, a bed upon which a small, white figure reclines, if burrowing and writhing may be brought under that head, and a man bending over the ensemble of nightgown, twinkling feet, brownie doll and copper cent.

[Note. The copper cent has been given as a bribe to induce a willingness to go to bed.]

First Voice (small, piping, but extremely cheerful)—Let's play circus, papa.

Second Voice (firm, but gentle)—No. Pop's boy must say his prayers and go to sleep.

First Voice (adding nothing whatever to the original proposition further than a little stronger tincture of persuasion) Let's play circus, papa.

Second Voice (its proprietor evidently determining quietly to ignore the suggestion)—Begin now, sweetheart. Put your hands together that way. "God bless mamma"—

"Gaw bless mamma"—

"'And papa'"—

"An' papa. * * * If I say 'Gaw bless papa' will you play circus?"

"Maybe so. Now, honey mustn't talk about anything else when he is saying his prayers. 'And Sister Ros'"—

A sudden ejaculation of delight as one of the wee feet, plunging upward at a right angle with the bed's surface carries with it the counterpane and sheet, forming thereby a very insignificant looking pyramid of covering.

"O-o-o-o! Circus tent! Papa be elephant!"

Sternness on the part of the senior. A quick leveling of the pyramid by simple process of extracting the center pole and straightening out the architect to his proper length of two feet three inches.

"Now, go on. 'God bless Sister Rosie and'"—

"O-! Papa's a bad boy. Spoiled my circus."

"'Sister Rosie and grandmamma and'"—

Silence.

"Don't you know what becomes of little boys that won't say their prayers?"

The reluctant one looks defiantly out into the adjoining room, from which a celebrated and especially fiendish frog is supposed to come when called upon for the purpose of carrying away little boys who do not say their prayers.

"You b'oke my circus."

"All right. I'll turn down the lamp then we'll see what happens."

The rebel manifests a disposition to [illegible], provided he can do so with dignity and untarnished honor.

"Gaw bless Sister Rosie and'—am I good boy, papa?"

"'And grandmamma.'"

But this skimming over and neglecting a vital proposition is not to be permitted.

"Am I a good boy, papa?"

"Yes, I guess so. Go on, now, little [illegible] 'God bless Sister'"—

"If the frog comes to carry away your good boy will you whip him?"

The elder of the couple concludes that by making a vehement declaration and stringing it on through many words he will be able to lead the devout one back to his supplications, even unknown [illegible].

"Well, I should say so. A nasty, big frog that would come to carry away my boy when he was just saying his prayers as nice as anything—I should think I would whip him. And so would grandmamma punish him, too, and drive him away, because grandmamma is good to her little man and loves him—and so let's say: 'God bless grandmamma.'"

"Gaw bless would you whip him with a stick?"

"With a stick and a switch and—and a curtain-rod."

"An' th'ow stones at him?"

First Voice — (its owner awaking to the fact that the doctrine of physical force is in danger of overshadowing the matter of orisons)—Now, my boy mustn't talk so much about other things. Go on with your prayers. Now—

Second Voice—O-a-i-u-e-a-o-i-n-e!

This is not the name of a Hawaiian lady. It is the chronicler's poor, futile effort to make the very accommodating Roman alphabet cover and describe the ejaculation and wail of dismay, sorrow, despair, gloom, dolor and lugubriousness which rose when the supplicator discovered the awful truth that his cent had disappeared.

First Voice—Sh! sh! What's the trouble?

Second Voice — My—cent — all—gone!

First Voice—Your what?

Third Voice (by the sound feminine, by the words, maternal)—He's lost his copper cent in the bedclothes—mamma's darling!

The small bunch of melancholy repeats another Hawaiian name—this time it is that of some island—and joins his progenitor in delving into the bedlinen in search of the faraway Klondike where treasure nestles. At length the money is found.

The head of the house is impressed by an idea.

"Now, you'll lose it again if you try to hold it in your hand. Let me pin it in a fold of your nightie. There! Isn't that fine? You can't lose your money now." He had formed a very bunchy wen upon the front of the garment, the core thereof being the copper.

"Go on with your prayers now. 'Grandma, and—'"

"Papa, did you fix my money so I can't lose it?"

"Yes, you needn't be afraid any more."

"You good boy, papa! Let me kiss you."

The little arms are extended after the manner of a letter v, and at the sight of the honest admiration which beams out of the bright and very wideawake eyes the parent in his heart forgives this little interruption of the holy function. His boy will be too big even to want to kiss him some time, and it is best to accept the sweet fruit of child love while one may. But austerity follows affection, and order proclaims itself.

"Now papa's boy mustn't do anything at all but say his prayers and go to sleep. Go ahead at grandma."

"* * * And grandmamma and Auntie Ruth and * * * Aunty Ruth bought me a shicken."

"'And Auntie Alice.'"

"Auntie Ruth bought me a shicken. Shicken with cany in it."

Third Voice (the voice of wisdom from the outer room)—If I were you I'd notice his chicken, or you'll never get past it. That's the way I managed Rosie, and she's asleep now.

"Notice it? How—oh, yes; so Auntie Ruth bought you a chicken full of candy, my, that was nice! Did you give Sister Rosie some of it?"

"E—ess."

There is something drawn out and protracted and sleepy about the response, and the man at the bed looks closely.

"He's about gone. Dear, little old chap! Well, I'll rush it through and not keep him awake too long. I'll bunch it. Sweetheart, say 'God bless everybody.'"

The sweetheart revives with an alacrity evidently born of the belief that emancipation is to be cheaply purchased.

"Gaw bless ev'body. Watch me turn a summerset."

"Why, you little possum! No, sir. No somersaults till you have finished. You must say: 'And make Rosie a good girl and Ted a good boy,' before there are any somersaults."

Silence. One foot kicks upward over the edge of the covering, where it is discovered like a new country, and a joyous "land-ho" of delight is uttered.

"Look at my foot, papa."

"Now, sir, I insist that you finish your prayers. This has gone far enough. The frog will come, and so will the big dog. And besides," as a heaping up of sorrows, "God doesn't like little boys who turn somersaults in the middle of their prayers. No, sir. Not the least bit. So," with amazing severity, considering the size of the adversary on whom he was "picking." "'Make Rosie a good girl and Ted a good boy.'"

"I'm too tard."

"Too tired! Oh," in an excess of grief and sorrow, addressing the brass ball at the head of the bedstead, "was there ever such a sinful little boy? Breaking his poor old papa's heart by his wickedness! Won't say his prayers! Poor, poor old papa, who loves him so much—"

Second Voice (from far, far, far away) —"And make papa good girl an'—an' —an' Rosie bless—ev'body—an'—n—n'."

Silence!

The self-described one of the broken heart bends over and notes the sealed eyes, the little face nestling into the depths of the pillow and the tranquil, regular breathing.

"Amen!" he says, very gently.—Chicago Record.

Many women are as unprepared for the birth of their babies as if they were found on the doorstep in the good, old-fashioned way. Nine-tenths of all the suffering incident to the coming of baby is absolutely unnecessary. It is unnatural that this great function should be fraught with so much danger and distress. This was Dr. Pierce's conviction thirty years ago, and he set about to find a way to set the trouble right. The result was the preparation and introduction of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the only medicine of its kind devised by a regularly graduated, experienced and skillful specialist in the treatment of the diseases of women,—the only medicine in the world that frees the period of gestation from its discomforts, and makes parturition safe and practically painless. It is an absolute specific for all forms of female weakness and disease. It may be obtained at drug stores, and any woman who would like to know all about it, or who would like to have advice about her health, should write to Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Any woman who is sallow and bilious and headachey, who does not sleep well, and who is troubled with any form of indigestion can do no better thing than to try the effect of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are the only positive and permanent cure for constipation. They stimulate the action of the liver and assist Nature in getting rid of impurities. You do not become a slave to their use. Take them until the regular, healthy action of the bowels has been restored, and then quit. They are the only remedy of their kind that is a real remedy. They do not cause griping or any other unpleasant feeling. Don't let your druggist impose upon you and substitute something which he says is "just as good."

A VERY COMMON

Practice is to advertise an article at one price and as being "worth" much more, without the reason for the lower price being made. It's a maxim of ours that merchandise is worth only what it sells for. For instance, we sell a very heavy ribbed and fleeced Ladies' Vest at 25 CTS., at a profit to us, and we know of their being sold at 39c. Our methods make it possible at 25c. Likewise SAILORS we are selling at 59 CTS., are being retailed elsewhere at 75c and $1 on this street Again our methods make it possible.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now Chas. H. Fletcher on every bear the fac-simile signature of wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought Chas. H. Fletcher on the and has the signature of wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

March 8, 1897. Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

Do Not Be Deceived.

Do not endanger the life of your child by accepting a cheap substitute which some druggist may offer you (because he makes a few more pennies on it), the ingredients of which even he does not know.

Their Usual Shape.

Juggins—Say, the boys gave me a little birthday spread last night, and I'd like to have you make mention of it in the paper. We only had beer and pretzels, but you can make it appear like it was a No. 1 blowout, can't you?

Reporter—Certainly. I'll state that there was no end to the good things you had to eat.—N. Y. World.

They Differ.

"Don't you believe all you see in the funny papers about summer girls and their engagements just for fun," said the sad-eyed man. "Why not?" "I thought I had met the kind of girl last summer; but she handed me good and tight before the year was out."—Philadelphia North American.

The Practical Joker.

The man who's always playing jokes
On other folks, I'm told,
Who cannot understand
Why they ... kick
When he ... a trick,
Somehow can ... see
The slightest sense
In jokes that make folks laugh
At his expense!

TOO MANY HORSES AT ORANGE FARM

From the Goshen Independent

The Independent Republican, which was the first to direct attention to the large number of horses at the county farm, does not believe this experiment will be a profitable one for the taxpayers, and the belief is largely due to the fact that since the county's property at Orange Farm passed out of Democratic control and into the hands of the Republicans the cost of maintenance of paupers in that institution has increased from $1.33 per week to $2.10, nearly one-third. Mr. Bogert's views on the horse question are not known, but he is said to be a dead game sport and may deem it advisable to increase the number of horses in the string. Elect Charles B Wood, and the "string of trotters" at Orange Farm will become a thing of the past.

The Play Was Thrilling Enough.

"Always on Time" as presented at the Casino, Friday night, before a fair-sized audience was as thrilling as any of that class of shows which have been here of late. The applause was frequent.

WALTON FARMERS WIN.

The O. C. M. A. Agrees to Their Terms in Regard to the Sale of Milk.

Manager Conklin, of the Orange County Milk Association visited Walton Tuesday, and after a conference with representatives of the farmers, who had been selling milk to the creamery, they agreed that milk should be bought by the can and that the price should be a quarter of a cent less than the Exchange price. Most of the farmers resumed the delivering of milk to the condensery, Thursday.

Wedding Reception.

From the Port Jervis Gazette

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Wickham held a reception Thursday evening, at their home on West Main street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wickham. Captain Dorrance and Mrs. Dorrance, of Middletown, the parents of the bride honored the occasion by their presence. It was a very large collection of the friends of the newly wedded pair and the young bride received a very cordial welcome to Port Jervis society.

The Port Jervis Electric Road.

Representatives of the parties owning the franchise for an electric railroad in Port Jervis are now engaged in securing the consents of property owners to the building of the road. They assert that work will be begun as soon as the necessary consents are secured.

An advertisement for 6,000 ties and 250 poles appeared in Friday's Gazette.

Obituary Notes.

—Anita A. Sayer, daughter of Mrs. Teressa Sayer, of Middletown, died at the home of her grandmother on Kingston avenue, this village, at 7 o'clock, Thursday evening, of cholera infantum, aged five months.—Port Jervis Gazette.
